Detailed ITINERARY

The journey begins early in the morning from Rishikesh with a scenic drive towards Guptkashi. The total distance of approximately 180 km usually takes around 7-8 hours, though travel time may increase during peak pilgrimage season due to traffic conditions.

Throughout the drive, you will witness the changing river landscapes—following the Ganga till Devprayag, continuing alongside the Alaknanda River, and finally driving along the Mandakini River during the last stretch.

En route, we will visit the sacred Dhari Devi Temple and pass through the famous river confluences (Prayags), including Devprayag, Rudraprayag, Agastmuni, before reaching Guptkashi. Upon arrival, check in to the hotel and relax after the long drive.

Day 1
Rishikesh to Guptkashi

Drive Distance: 180 km

Drive Time: 7-8 hours

Altitude: 4,539 ft

After an early breakfast, drive from Guptkashi to Sonprayag (30 km, 1-2 hours). From Sonprayag, take a local taxi to Gaurikund, the starting point of the Kedarnath trek.

Begin the 17 km trek from Gaurikund to Kedarnath on a well-paved trail with gradual ascent. The altitude gain of about 5,072 feet may cause AMS, so walk at a steady pace, stay hydrated, and carry snacks and water. Be cautious and give way to mules along the route.

Reach Kedarnath by evening, check into your accommodation, and attend the evening aarti at Kedarnath Temple.

Kedarnath Valley is surrounded by beautiful peaks, flora and fauna. Just behind Kedarnath, you will see Kedar Dome, Kedarnath Main, Chorabari Glacier, and Kedarnath Glacier. Near Kaal Bhairav Temple you will find meadows filled with wild flowers, particularly Bhringraj.

Soak in all the peace and spiritual aura of the valley. After your wonderful time, get ready to descend down. Make sure to keep enough water and snacks with you.

By evening we will be back to Gaurikund. Via local taxi, we will go to Sonprayag from Gaurikund and from there to Guptkashi. The night stay will be in Guptkashi.
